Farmingville, NY - On December 2, 2012, Councilman Dan Panico joined with Supervisor Ed Romaine and Suffolk County Clerk Judith A. Pascale for the 43rd Annual Chamber of Commerce of the Mastics and Shirley Christmas Parade. This has been one of the largest events in the area and a community tradition since the 1970s.

"Every year, thousands of people attend one of the largest events in the Mastic-Shirley community for an amazing show of community pride and the holiday spirit," commented Brookhaven Town Councilman Dan Panico. "I always look forward to this parade and thank those who attended as well as those who continually organize it. A job well done by all."
